GRACE CHURCH COMPROMISES

With Mrs. Latham, Accepting
$35,000 for $50,000
Legacy.

LITIGATION WAS THREATENED

And the Church Decided To Settle the Claim Out of Court.

The Grace Episcopal church, of this city, has compromised its $50,000 bequest left by John C. Latham to the church for $35,000.

The bequest was in long term bonds, the church to derive the annual income of five per cent interest.

Rev. Geo. C. Abbott, rector of the church, said the compromise was made to avoid litigation about to be begun by Mrs. Elsie G. Latham, widow of the testator, to question the validity of that clause of the will. Particulars of the compromise have not been given out, that is, it is not known whether the agreed sum is to be paid in cash or bonds.

Practically all of the other bequests have now been recognized and paid in part, excepting those of the city of Hopkinsville, $20,000 in real estate, $30,000 in cash and $50,000 in bonds, the income to be used as a poor fund.

There is no more sacred duty that can devolve upon man, than the custody of money not his own. When, by reason of ill health or old age, men find it impossible to properly manage their valuable interests, and thereby to protect those whom they must leave behind them, it becomes necessary for them to seek another, who, representing them, can safely be entrusted with their property, and who will conscientiously inspect their wishes and anxieties.

Roderick Lean Leverless Cultivator

Just Compare It Once

Compare the Roderick Lean Leverless with other cultivators—see how simple it is. Nearly all parts of straight steel, and it weighs 100 pounds less than the ordinary cultivator. Strong enough to suit all requirements. Sited to any one, and the only adjustments necessary are those to suit the weight of operator. No levers, masts, pivot axles, seat dodgers or other nuisances on it.

Easy to Handle

Gangs always under perfect control, since they are counterbalanced by operator's weight. They are guided by an almost imperceptible movement of the body. Possible to almost hoe the corn with no extra exertion. Trash easily shaken off by simply raising your foot, when the gang comes up and can be knocked against the wheel—no need of stopping team. Also, easy to turn at end of row—gangs come up the instant pressure is released. No levers to fool with.

Perfectly Balanced Pole

After setting wheel forward or backward, as necessary to make operator's weight in the seat exactly balance the pole, there is nothing further to do. The pole stands perfectly level, whether plowing or standing still, and whether the gangs are in the ground or out. The pole balance is made possible by the hitch. A perfectly balanced cultivator—no neck weight or flying up of pole.

Encouraging Mob Violence.

Hon. E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, made a very warm speech at Barboursville last week in which he not only referred to Judge O'Rear as a Night Rider, but handled him with out gloves for what he said when Governor Willson sent troops to Hopkinsville. It will be remembered that an armed and masked body of men rode into the city and applied the torch to warehouses and shot up the town generally, and would have probably killed Editor Meacham if he had been found. Gov. Willson never did a more creditable act to uphold the law and protect the citizens of Hopkinsville from another raid from the night riders than when he sent troops to Hopkinsville. If there ever was a time in the history of the State when Military force was needed it was then, and Gov. Willson's action did more to save the city and check lawlessness than anything which could have been done. Candidate Franks in reviewing this situation quotes what Judge O'Rear the Chief Justice of the State said about Willson's action, "You cannot push an idea through an Anglo Saxon's brain with a bayonet." This language showed conclusively that he was not in sympathy with the Governor's action in protecting a demoralized city with troops. Coming as it did from the highest judicial officer in the state there is no question that it encouraged rather than discouraged mob violence. Mr. Franks at least makes this plain in his speech. It is the one every weak point in Judge O'Rear's record which is not only assailable but also seems indefensible. The speech of Mr. Franks has aroused quite a sensation in Republican circles in every section of the State and those of the party who thought that O'Rear was invincible are beginning to have some doubts on the subject. As this matter is likely to figure very extensively in the approaching campaign, and as we published O'Rear's speech, we give space in this issue to Mr. Franks' Barboursville address. We advise both Democrats and Republicans to read it.—Elizabethtown News.

A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

Your wife can escape this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection oven it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

He will lecture at the regular services. Rev. F. M. Wilson, the pastor, extends an invitation to the public generally to attend the services morning and night at Olivet church.

Barbers Against Tipping.

The St. Louis barbers who have placed a ban on tipping have set a worthy example to their craft throughout the whole country. Tip giving is un-American, and it has grown to be a rank abuse through the lack of any regulation of it by long-established custom such as prevails in Europe. To resolve not to accept tips is a declaration of manhood on the part of the barbers. They should ask a fair price for their work and refuse gratuities, like the salesman in a store who sells any article of merchandise.

It may be questioned whether the St. Louis barbers are right in their declared belief that the tipping custom has caused the great increase in the number of men who shave themselves. Convenience, ease of operation and other causes influence many in favor of the safety. But there will always be a large number of men who will prefer to be shaved by a barber who gives good service at a reasonable charge, and anything the barbers can do to better their service will increase custom.—Record Herald.

CITY PROPERTY

As Equalized Will Be About $4,250,000.

The Board of Equalization closed its sittings Tuesday, after having been in session in all eight days.

The valuation of the American Snuff Co.'s new property that is taxed for the first time this year was fixed at $22,000, the company's total assessment being $35,000. The property of the Imperial Tobacco Co. heretofore exempt, was fixed at $50,300. In addition to these new assessments the equalizations netted $59,650. There were 90 raises and 14 reductions. The assessment last year was about $4,015,000. The increases this year are $131,650 and this will be further increased by new property listed by the assessor.

The totals have not yet been made up, but the list is expected to be about $4,250,000, with franchises added, which were $124,000 last year.

The council will pass the Levy ordinance to-morrow night and probably fix the rate at $1.50 as heretofore.

AD. MAN WANTED.

A good ad. setter and make-up man can get a job in this office. Give recommendations.

Hon. Jas. B. McCreary will speak at Earlington this afternoon and at Madisonville to-night.

Senator Paynter has come home from Washington to engage actively in his campaign for renomination. The primary is now less than a month off and but little interest has been aroused.

Prof. Hamlett came in this week from a canvassing trip and is greatly encouraged at his prospects for winning the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is undoubtedly the best qualified man for the place and would add great strength to the ticket.

American Burned at Stake.

Trinidad, Col., June 1.—The report that Robert Sweasy has been burned at the stake in Mexico has been confirmed by a letter to Mrs. Jos. Bonateo, Jr., of this city, from Mrs. Sweasy. The women are sisters. The letter states that Sweasy was put to death at the stake at the hands of Mexican bandits on May 16 for failure to give them money they knew he had. Mrs. Sweasy writes that she was driven from home, and was without food and shelter for fifty hours, but finally reached the camp of friendly Americans.

Sweasy was employed by the Mexican Central Railroad.

Loves Five Wives.

Breaking the silence which it has always maintained against the assaults of its detractors, the Mormon Church, through its First Presidency in the person of Joseph F. Smith, prophet and revelator, at Salt Lake replied to its antagonists in the United States and Great Britain last week in a statement, in which he makes this admission.

"I believe in being true to five wives who are loving, loyal, contented and happy mothers. They have been my wives for from over 27 to more than 40 years. Through all these I have held my love and duty to them above all things else.

Squirrels Do Great Damage.

California farmers have always been afflicted by ground squirrels, pretty little rascals with long bushy tails, large ears and intelligent faces, which live in holes in the ground like gophers. They breed like rabbits and eat up wheat and other grain, walnuts, prunes, peaches, olives, figs, oranges and certain vegetables and forage crops, destroy vineyards and young orange groves and do other damage to the amount of about $10,000,000 a year in California alone. Last year the government killed 22,575 of them.

Shot at Sunrise.

San Diego, Cal., May 31.—Capt. Tony Vegas, of the rebel forces at Tijuana, Lower California, Mexico, was executed by a rebel firing squad shortly after sunrise today. Vegas shot and killed a Mexican in a row. Vegas refused to be blindfolded. He lighted a cigarette, then faced the firing squad and told them to aim carefully. Because he doffed his coat in the presence of ladies while delivering the annual baccalaureate address before the students of the Alabama Presbyterian College for men in Anniston, Ala., Tuesday, Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson was gently rebuked by the Rev. James G. Glass, rector of Grace Episcopal church and President of Noble Institute for young ladies.

During the latter part of his address, the speaker became overheated in enthusiasm over the Merrimac incident and a big navy, as a result of which he removed his coat, with apologies to the ladies present. Dr. Glass thought this a discourtesy, and to show how he felt about it, he peremptorily left the hall.

JAS. GARNETT TIPPED TO WIN

Has Only one Opponent Left in Race for Nomination.

IN ATTORNEY GEN. FIGHT

Son of the Lamented Judge Jas. Garnett, a Learned and Profound Jurist.

Over in the Eleventh district where the lamented Judge Counts was wont to claim that winter green grew only on the premises of Republicans, James Garnett, whose home is at Columbia, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General.

Jim Garnett is a young man, but an experienced lawyer and ripe scholar. He was admitted to the bar in 1890 and formed a partnership with his father, the late Judge Jas. Garnett, a profound jurist, for the practice at Columbia.

In 1897 he was elected County Attorney of Adair county, and re-elected four years later. As Adair is one of the strong "winter green" counties of the Eleventh district, the two elections of Mr. Garnett to the office of County Attorney evidenced his popularity, strength and capacity.

Mr. Garnett was elected a member of the State Central Committee in 1895, was re-elected several times and continued to serve until 1908. His home paper, the Adair County News, thus speaks of him:

"Mr. James Garnett, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General, took an open, active position to induce the Executive Committee to call a platform convention before the primary. There is no doubt as to his position and that he firmly believes such a step necessary and fair to the party. He

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—MRS. NATHAN B. GREATON, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

does not believe in dodging any issue, and his stand is heartily endorsed by many representative Democrats, who joined in the request that the committee should stand by their call for the primary, but they should permit the party to take a position. In short, he stated to us that he was willing and anxious to stand on a platform that the Democrats of this State would make, that he believed the party would take the right side of every question affecting the peace and prosperity of our State, but that could not be done except in a representative convention. Mr. Garnett has an abiding confidence in the united wisdom of the Democrats of Kentucky, when in convention assembled, and believes they will declare for such principles as will give to the greatest number the greatest amount of good. He personally stands for progressive government, there is not a doubt that the great majority of the Democrats are with him."

James Garnett is a splendid speaker, a most affable gentleman and a Democrat of the old Jeffersonian school. In every campaign waged in Kentucky since attaining his majority his voice has been heard in defense of party principles and party nominees.

If nominated in the July primary he will be found doing his utmost to bring success to the State ticket.

AT DAVIS HOME.

All Eyes Turned on Fairview—Flowers for Soldiers' Graves.

Today will be a big day at Fairview. A public speaking will be held in the woods on the Davis Home grounds with addresses by John C. Duffy, John S. Rhea and others.

The people of the vicinity will bring baskets and there will be a picnic on the grounds.

The usual decoration of graves in Riverside Cemetery will take place this morning at nine o'clock, so as not to conflict.

The Christian county chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will furnish the flowers, and the members of Ned Meriwether Camp, U. C. V., will march in a body to the Latham Confederate monument in the cemetery. There will be no formal exercises.

Not a Day in Bed.

Since taking it, I do all the housework for my family of nine, and have not been in bed a day. Cardui is the greatest remedy for women, on earth." Weak women need Cardui. It is the ideal woman's tonic, because it is especially adapted for women's needs. It relieves backache, dragging feelings, and other female misery. Try Cardui. ILL HEALTH THE CAUSE

Was Prominent Farmer and Leaves Family—One Son Lives Here.

Rufus K. Goodwin, a well known farmer, of Cerulean Springs, shot himself with a shot gun in his barn Thursday night and was found dead by his family. Mr. Goodwin had been in very bad health for two years or more and despondency of his condition is supposed to have been the cause of his suicide. He removed his coat and vest and putting the gun against his left side fired both barrels. Death was probably instantaneous, as he was dead when found. The barn was some distance from the house, but the family did not hear the reports. He leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Lillie Wolfe, and several grown children. One of his daughters, Miss Irma Goodwin, was educated at Bethel College. His son, Arch Goodwin, lives in this city, and is a salesman for Frankel. Deceased was about 50 years of age.

Madisonville, Ky., May 31.—The board of education today decided to tear down eight old school houses in eight different school sections of Hopkins county, and replace them with new buildings. This is not as big a job as it looks, as the entire outlay will not be more than $400 each.

SCHOOL IS OUT.

Graduates Get Sheepskins and

BETHEL-PROSPEROUS

President H. G. Brownell Writes to the Baptist World.

"You will be glad to know that Bethel Female College has had a good year; that we have no spare room in the dormitory—not even a guest room—and that more requests have come for space for next year than the number of pupils we can now accommodate. I am hunting for a large residence in which to house the overflow. Our academic standard is now the highest in Kentucky for women's colleges, and we are attracting many high school graduates for three years of college work. I believe that if the denomination wants it we can have at Hopkinsville a school of one hundred and fifty or more boarding pupils in a very few years. The county high school is helping us and so is every other agency that is attracting attention to the need for education."

PRINCE-GREEN

Prominent Young Couple Are Wedded In Tennessee.

Mr. Craig Prince and Miss Lucie Evelyn Green were quietly married at the home of the groom's brother-in-law, Mr. W. H. Barbee, in New Providence, Wednesday afternoon at 7:00 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Hunt, who performed an impressive and beautiful ceremony. It was a Gretna Green wedding, parental objections causing the couple to marry away from home. The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno R. Green, of Green's Station, Ky., six miles west of Hopkinsville, and is numbered among the social circle there. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Prince, near Kennedy, Ky. He is well known and has many friends in Clarksville who wish them many blessings through life. The wedding was witnessed by a number of near relatives and close friends.—Leab Chronicle.

McCarley---Cannon.

A quiet home wedding was that which united the lives and destinies of Mr. William F. McCarley, of Logan county, and Miss Kate Ewin Cannon, of this city, at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The ceremony was very impressively pronounced by Dr. R. V. Ferguson at the bride's home on Jackson street.—Pembroke Journal.

DeGeorge--Freeman.

Frank DeGeorge, who conducts a fruit store on Ninth street, and Miss Hallie Freeman, who has been a saleslady in his establishment for some time, were married Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. A. R. Kasey officiated. They will board with the bride's mother, on Kentucky avenue, for the present.

Married in Manila.

Prof. Ernest J. Murphy, of Manila, P. I., and Miss Callie Starkely, of Union Springs, Ala., were united in marriage in Manila on April 17. This announcement comes as a most agreeable surprise to the many friends of Prof. Murphy. The bride-to-be made the journey from her Southern home to the Pacific coast, thence by ship to Hong Kong, China, where she was met by Prof. Murphy. Together they finished the journey to Manila, where the nuptial knot was tied.—Pembroke Journal.

Rosy as a Girl.

Summit, N. C.—in a letter received from this place, Mr. J. W. Church the notary public, says: "My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years, from female ailments, and at times, was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried physicians for years without relief. After these treatments all failed, she took Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl." Cardui, as a tonic for women, has brought remarkable results. It relieves pain and misery and is the ideal tonic for young and old. Try it. At druggists.

FIRST SERMON

By Pastor of First Presbyterian Church Tomorrow Morning.

Rev. E. B. Landis, former pastor of Presbyterian church at Paducah, who has accepted a call of the First Presbyterian church of this city, will preach his first sermon tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. His furniture has already arrived and he will at once go to housekeeping in the manse adjoining the church. Mrs. Landis, who is visiting relatives in Tennessee, will be here the middle of the coming week.

Mr. Landis is recognized as one of the strongest pastors in Princeton Presbytery and is a young man of fine education and an attractive speaker, is an enthusiastic and strenuous servant of the Master, and will doubtless be highly successful in his new field of labor. The musical feature of tomorrow's services will be up to the high standard maintained by the church choir for years. Everybody is most cordially invited.

S. H. LESTER,

Who Thinks he was Damaged
by Being Arrested.

He was arrested about August 1 at home on suspicion of knowing something about the killing of Axion Cooper, the night rider witness, at Lamasco, and was kept over night at the home of Milton Oliver and other prisoners.

He was released next day and never indicted. Cooper was killed July 30, presumably by night riders, to prevent his testifying. The damage case is set for June 10.

GREAT TASK

Of Counting Mail Completed
Wednesday Night.

Employees of the local postoffice completed at midnight Wednesday the count of every piece of mail matter received and sent out from the office during the month of May. The total number handled was 269,422 pieces, of which 96,000 pieces were handled at night. Postmaster Breathitt will send the totals to the postmaster general's office as soon as the tabulation can be completed. The order for the count was issued to every first-class postoffice in the country and it is generally believed that the order was given to ascertain just what piece of mail is the greatest revenue producer. The order was effective for the month of May only.

Their dyes are all their own and the red runs to a dark dullness almost infringing on crimson that is a secret carefully guarded and cannot be replaced outside the mountain fastnesses of the little state itself.

DESCENDANT OF KING DAVID

Interesting Question Raised as to Ancestry of Present Occupant of British Throne.

Shall we see a direct descendant of King David seated on the Stone of Jacob on June 22 when King George is crowned? The London Chronicle asks. There are thousands of people who believe so and are ready with a full genealogical tree. There is a warrant for the kings of Judah, but Queen Tea Tophi, daughter of Nehemiah, is rather troublesome. One does not know where she was evolved. She came to Ireland with Jeremiah and the Stone of Destiny, and she married there Eochaidh the Heremon, prince of the Tuatha de Danaan, that gentleman being also a descendant of the royal line of Judah. They were the first in these kingdoms to be crowned on Jacob's Stone, and from them the British Israelites trace the pedigree of our kings. When David, who is the present prince of Wales, is 30, there will have elapsed 100 generations between him and his great Jewish ancestor. They also believe we British are the lost Ten Tribes.

HE WAS IT

"I'll marry whom I please!" said she, And tossed her little head. "Hurrah! You're mine! For certainly You do please me!" he said.

FOR REFORMED ALPHABET.

Shall the world's final script be Roman, such letters as we use, or Arabic or Chinese? The Roman script has by far the best chance and the best claim. Efforts are making to introduce it in China and Japan, and now the effort is making to interest India in reducing its 50 alphabets to a single one.

In the 200 languages of India there are only about sixty-three separate sounds, but it would take some 20,000 characters to represent them in print, as so many are syllabic. But before a Roman alphabet can be adopted it should be reformed.

Simplified spelling is good and can be greatly extended, but a scientific alphabet, made by international conference, is of the first importance to perfect what is called the missionary alphabet.—Independent.

SHE GOT THE PENSION.

An elderly woman called on a lawyer in San Francisco to ask him to have the United States government grant her a pension. She told a sad story of her destitution, and added a glowing account of the heroism her husband had displayed in the Civil war.

"As I understand it," the pension attorney said, "you ask for this pension in the name of the valiant services rendered to your country by your husband."

"No, I ask it in the name of God and his mercy."

"In that case," said the lawyer, "I'll get you your pension. I have very few applications in that name."—Popular Magazine.

A "BAD BOY" WAVE OF CRIME.

The "bad boy" is the cause of the crime wave now under investigation, according to members of the grand jury and also investigators connected with the district attorney's office. Nearly four hundred persons who had been victims of burglars or thieves told of their tribulations, and whenever definite knowledge of the criminal was known it was invariably a boy or a young man.—New York World.

FINALLY THE FIGHT BEGAN HER KNOWLEDGE WAS SMALL

Kentucky Mountain Woman's Description of the Preliminaries That Led Up to Real Contest.

Bishop Woodbridge of Kentucky was discussing the southern mountaineers, among whom he has lived and worked for many years. The question of family feuds was brought up and the bishop related the following anecdote:

"A certain family had attended a reunion, which terminated in a free-for-all fight. The offenders were taken before the local justice of the peace, who questioned an old woman as to the particulars of the fight. Her description was typical of the mountaineer's attitude toward strife and bloodshed.

"Well, judge," she said, "Jew Lewis got into an argument with Hank Budds. Budd smashed Jew over the head with a stick of cordwood, busting his head open. Then Jew's brother slashed Hank up with a butcher knife, and Lou Barry shot him through the leg. Larry Stover went at Lou with an axe, and then, judge, we just naturally got to fighting."—Philadelphia Times.

FINDS GOOD IN EVERYTHING

That is the One Unfailing Characteristic of Wisdom, According to the Philosopher.

Wisdom is alchemy. Else it would not be wisdom. This is its unfailing characteristic, that it finds good in everything, that it renders all things more precious. In this respect also does it renew the spirit of childhood within us: while foolishness hardens our hearts and narrows our thoughts, wisdom makes us feel a childlike curiosity and a childlike interest about all things. When our view is confined to ourselves nothing is of value except what minister in one way or other to our personal gratification; but in proportion as it widens, our sympathies increase and multiply. Nothing can be further from wisdom than the mark of it assumed by men of the world who affect indifference about whatever does not belong to their own immediate circle of interests or pleasure.—Julius Charles Hare.

USE FOR BABIES.

A comedy of babies was enacted in a Dublin (Ireland) court the other morning. A number of young women fish dealers were summoned for exposing fish for sale on the public thoroughfare. The first batch all appeared with babies in their arms and were discharged with a caution. When the second batch of defendants appeared and each had a baby in her arms his lordship was bewildered, as he recognized several of the chubby youngsters who had appeared with different mammas. The practice of lending a baby to excite the sympathy of the court appears to be common on such occasions and one baby often appears repeatedly in different arms before the magistrate.

REMEMBERED LESSON.

Judge Joseph Buckner Lamar of Georgia, who has recently been appointed to the supreme bench, tells the following story: When his children were young they were often warned against playing on the lawn when it was damp. The frequency with which this warning had to be repeated seemed to indicate that it had made very little impression upon the youngsters, until one day when his little son was learning the Golden Text for the next Sunday school lesson. "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet," the boy repeated to his father, "for the ground whereon thou standest is—?" "Is what, son?" said the judge. "Is damp," suggested the little boy.

LONDON'S LARGE BALLROOM.

London is to have an immense ballroom, in which 8,000 persons will be able to dance. After the close of the skating season at Olympia the skating surface, which is of maple, will be scientifically treated by a Viennese expert, and the floor will be made the finest for dancing in the world.

EVEN THEN.

Captain Kidd—What's the trouble? Can't you make the prisoner walk the plank?

Lieutenant—No, cap; he absolutely refuses to be a part of the spectacle unless we guarantee him a percentage of the moving picture receipts.—Puck.

Maiden Greatly Interested in Mechanics, but She Knew Little About a Boat.

She had just graduated from the high school and Harold, who had fallen before her charms, not the least of which to him was her interest in mechanics, was laying constant siege. As soon as his new motor boat was launched he forthwith invited Phyllis for a trial spin down the Potomac. As she sat beside him, jauntily clad in a brand new yachting suit, she turned upon the swain a rapid-fire battery of questions, asking him everything imaginable about the boat and filling him with fond joy. At length her eye lit upon a circular life buoy fastened to the rail that ran around the stern.

"What's that for, Harold?" she asked after gazing awhile in deep study.

"That's in case of accident," replied Harold.

For a long time the maiden pondered in deep thought. Then her face lit up with a satisfied intelligence.

"O, I see now," she exclaimed, beaming on Harold. "You were afraid you might have an accident while I was with you and brought along that extra tire like papa carries on the automobile. It was awfully thoughtful of you!"

HOW CHICLE IS GATHERED

Natives of Yucatan Collect the Chewing Gum From the Lofty Sapota Trees.

In Yucatan the gathering of the chicle chewing gum is an industry that employs the services of considerable bands of natives known as "chicleros." They go into the deep forests, under experienced leaders, armed with heavy knives of special make and pails and ladders for the sap, and each one is provided with a strong rope, more than 80 feet long, to be used in climbing the lofty sapota trees from which the gum is procured.

The sap flows from gashes cut in the bark. A camp of chicleros, where the sap is boiled, resembles in some respects an American maple sugar camp. After months of work the chicleros return from the forests laden with brick-like blocks of aromatic gum. The finest gum is collected from the fruit of the sapota, mostly by the native women, and it is said that it is seldom exported, because it is too well liked at home.—Harper's Weekly.

PORTUGAL'S RAT CAMPAIGN.

Rats appear to be thicker in Portugal than in any other country in the world and the new government has undertaken a campaign to drive rats out of that country. There are prizes to be given for the largest number of rats killed in a given time by a given man, and substantial aid has been placed in the hands of the anti-rat associations. All the new buildings used for stores and warehouses must be rat proof. Some of the cities of Portugal have the highest death rate of any towns in Europe and the scientists say this bad state of health is due to diseases caused by rats.—New York Press.

PLEASURE FOR SMALL BOYS.

Small boys and people of poor digestion, if the bulletin of the Iowa experiment station is to be believed, need no longer curb their appetite for ice cream, for the more lacto they eat the healthier they will become. Lacto is a new frozen dairy product invented by the station. It is made of lopped whole or skim milk, with the addition of eggs, sugar, lemons and flavoring material. It has a very pleasant flavor, and it supplies the body with lactic acid bacteria, which eminent scientists say is a means of improving health and prolonging life.

ITS CONDITION.

"Why is it that Jinks' telling of a story seems never welcome to anybody?"

"I suppose because it is a poor relation."

ITS TRUE NATURE.

"What do you think of that terrible electrical storm?"

"Something of a reigning sensation, wasn't it?"

ITS KIND.

"There is one very peculiarly contradictory thing about dry humor."

"What is that?"

"The way people drink it in."

Vincennes has tickets out for 11 new men.

The Moguls are now where they deserve to be.

Only eight days of baseball on the home grounds this month.

It took 10 innings for Harrisburg to beat Cairo 3 to 2 Wednesday.

Paducah sprang a surprise on Clarksville and took the first game on the series.

On the Wheelhouse of the Mogul Dreadnaught is painted the legend "Come to Stay."

Clarksville got her'n at Paducah in the shape of two straight defeats from the Indians.

Cooper, Clarksville's 2nd baseman, made 3 hits out of 5 times up at Paducah Wednesday.

Overton, a popular member of the Mogul team last year, is now short-stop for Huntsville, Ala.

Wiley Platt, an old big League player, has been appointed umpire, replacing Arnold, who was released.

Frank Auen, formerly with the S. P. U., Clarksville, is now with the Southern League and hit the ball at Nashville Thursday.

Same Old Tactics.

Platt umpired his first game at Harrisburg Wednesday between Harrisburg and Cairo. Platt got along nicely until the first half of the tenth when he called a Cairo runner safe at first. In the last half he called a Harrisburg runner out at third and the crowd made for him. The situation looked critical for a few moments and only the presence of deputy sheriffs and constables saved Platt.—Paducah Sun.

Henderson Wakes Up.

The Gleaner says:
The new baseball league will be formed by teams from Booneville, Rockport and Mt. Vernon, Ind.; Henderson and Owensboro, Ky. Some other city will be selected if a team in Evansville cannot be induced to join. Six teams will form a trolley league. If Evansville refuses either Uniontown or Princeton, Ind., or probably Morganfield, will be taken into the league. Two and maybe three games will be played in this city each week. The object of the league is to get good teams established in the cities named and next year a regularly organized minor league will be established.

GALT HOUSE

Louisville's Famous Old Hotel
Will be Closed June 10.

It has been determined that in the event the Galt House is not sold June 6 it will be finally closed June 10.

The Galt House is one of the famous hotels in the South, and if it should pass from existence, it would mean the removal of a celebrated landmark. It has sheltered more notables during its existence than any other hostelry in Louisville, and the autographs of many great men and women are on the yellow pages of its old registers.

Charles Dickens, the great English novelist, stopped at the Galt House when he was writing his "American Notes," and mention is made of the hotel in this narration. Until five years ago the Galt House was the leading hotel of Louisville, and though in a manner isolated from the new current of traffic, it continued to be a favorite with its old patrons.

ATTENTION!

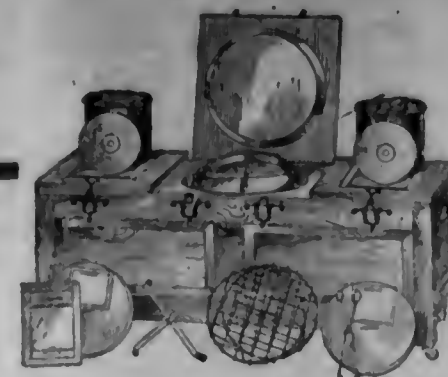

The Daughters of the Confederacy will furnish flowers for the annual decoration of the Confederate graves today. The veterans will please assemble promptly at the city court room at 9 o'clock a. m. There will be no ceremonies.

WE UNHESITATINGLY state that for pastry baking, no stove equals the "Caloric." If you ever eat Strawberry Short Cake baked in the "Caloric," you'll never again care for it baked any other way. This is only one illustration of the superior efficiency of the "Caloric" Fireless Cookstove. Meat, game, fish, poultry, practically all foods are rendered far more wholesome and delicious when baked or roasted in the "Caloric." All the fine flavor is retained; none is lost by evaporation as when the ordinary oven is employed.

The "Caloric" steams, stews and boils just as efficiently as it bakes and roasts. It is guaranteed to do just as we claim for it or your money refunded. Satisfaction,—better cooked meals, and a less expenditure for fuel—less time in the kitchen over a hot stove—more time for shopping, reading, sewing, etc. What better arguments can we offer you?
